shall dismiss any appeal filed on subsequent implementing actions that result from the initial project decision subject to appeal under §215.7. For example, an initial decision to offer a timber sale is appealable under this part; subsequent implementing actions to advertise or award that sales are not appealable under this part.

(c) Decisions solely affecting the business relationship between the Forest Service and holders of written instruments regarding occupancy and use of National Forest System lands can be appealed by permit holders under either 36 CFR part 251, subpart C, or this part, but cannot be appealed under both regulations.

§215.9 Notice of decisions.

- (a) Publication of public notice. The Responsible Official shall publish a notice of any decision which is subject to notice and comment under §215.3 in a newspaper of general circulation identified pursuant to the requirements of §215.5(a).
- (b) Publication of notice of a decision. A notice of a decision published pursuant to this section shall:
- (1) Include the decision title and a concise description of the action(s) to be taken, the name and title of the Responsible Official, and instructions for obtaining a copy of the decision document:
- (2) Except for decisions on which no expression of interest was received during the comment period §215.8(4), state that the decision is subject to appeal pursuant this part and include the following:
- (i) State the name and address of the Appeal Deciding Officer with whom an appeal should be filed;
- (ii) Specify that an appeal must be postmarked and submitted to the Appeal Deciding Officer within 45 days of the date of publication in accordance with §215.13;
- (3) For those decisions on which no comment was received, state that the decision is not subject to appeal pursuant to $\S215.8(a)(4)$.
- (c) Mailing decision documents. The Responsible Official shall promptly mail the decision document to those who request the specific document and to those who submitted comments on the proposed action either before or during the comment period provided pursuant to §215.6.

§215.10 Implementation of decisions.

- (a) If no appeal is filed, implementation of decisions subject to appeal pursuant to this part may occur on, but not before, 5 business days from the close of the appeal filing period.
- (b) If an appeal is filed, implementation may not occur for 15 days following the date of appeal disposition. In the event of multiple appeals of the same decision, the date of the disposition of the last appeal controls the implementation date.
- (c) If a project is not appealable because, pursuant to §215.8(a)(4), no expression of interest has been received and there is no change from the proposed action, implementation may occur immediately upon publication of the notice of the decision as provided in §215.9.
- (d) A project decision is not subject to a stay if the Chief of the Forest Service determines that an emergency situation exists with respect to the decision in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph:
- (1) An emergency, as defined here, is an unexpected event, or a serious occurrence or a situation requiring urgent action. Examples of an emergency include, but are not limited to, the following:
- (i) Vegetation loss which presents an immediate threat of flooding or land-slide.
- (ii) Hazardous or unsafe situations as a result of wildfire or other circumstances.
- (iii) Damage to water quality caused by siltation due to fire or flooding.
- (iv) Potential loss of fish and wildlife habitat due to windstorms and blowdowns.
- (v) Sudden outbreaks of forest pests and diseases.
- (2) The Responsible Official shall notify the public that the Forest Service intends to handle this project as an emergency in the public notice on proposed actions as provided in $215.5(c)(1). Actions responding to emergency situations may be accomplished with force account (Forest
